

ENERGY

Volatile oil prices and the depletion of traditional hydrocarbon energy sources have made an already competitive industry even more complex. At the same time energy suppliers provide essential public services, and political pressures add another layer of complexity, as governments and regulators seek energy security and demand both price stability and cleaner energy supplies.

In a market that is fast-changing and under pressure from a variety of different directions, you need a firm that is immersed in energy markets and is innovative and agile in driving and achieving your business goals. This includes providing strategic assistance to clients encompassing the entire energy value chain from oil majors, independents, transportation companies, power generators and utilities, financial institutions and large customers.

Rutan & Tucker attorneys understand the energy industry and see the opportunities within traditional sectors and within new technologies and who can help shape the business you want. Upstream or downstream, from exploration to marketing, and from generation to retail, Rutan & Tucker can give you the innovative advice and insight you need.
